

Errata Sheet

Glossary	Pg. 9	PUBLISHED: Period—term used to describe the time period covered by the SCA (600 AD—1600AD) and also used to denote accurate representations of items and skills used during those dates (i.e. a period feast would be one in which the food is a recreation of what would have been eaten by our historic counterparts). CORRECTED: Period—term used to describe the time period covered by the SCA (pre-17th-century) and also used to denote accurate representations of items and skills used during those dates (i.e. a period feast would be one in which the food is a recreation of what would have been eaten by our historic counterparts).
Customs	Pg. 17	PUBLISHED: Those with an “HL” or “THL” in front of their name should be addressed as “(The) Honorable Lady” or “(The) Honorable Lord”², those with an “L” before their name as “Lady” or “Lord.” None of these terms should be used for any who does not hold the appropriate rank; however, you may greet a member of the general populace as “my lady” or “my lord” so long as their name does not immediately follow the specific greeting. In addition, there are items which only those of certain rank are allowed to wear, and others which, though not restricted, have definite associations with certain positions or job descriptions. CORRECTED: Both paragraphs deleted.
Customs	Pg. 17	PUBLISHED: 2 Note: This is not an historical practice and beyond that some branches in the SCA do not practice or recognize it. CORRECTED: Footnote deleted.
Heraldry	Pg. 32	PUBLISHED: Captions for “Per Fess” and “Per Pale” are swapped. CORRECTED: “Per Fess” caption should be under current image captioned “Per Pale”, and “Per Pale” caption should be under current image captioned “Per Fess”.