

Non-Member Registration F.A.Q.s

What SCA activities are subject to Non-Member Registration (NMR)? And which ones are not?

Events are defined in the Corpora section II.C. In brief, an event is a published function where garb is usually required and formal SCA functions, such as courts and giving awards, can be conducted. An event can be for a partial day or for multiple days.

Examples of events include such things as tournaments, feasts, wars, A&S Classes, and revels. An Event is where you would usually invite someone to come see what the SCA is about.

Meetings are regularly scheduled functions and usually do not require garb. A meeting is almost always for a partial day. Examples of meetings are Business and financial committee meetings, fighters and archery practice, guild meetings and A&S project days. These functions do not require NMR (non-member registration).

Demonstrations that would not require Non-Member Registration (NMR) would be hosted by some group other than the SCA, such as a school or scout group or Renaissance Faire. If the SCA is hosting the demo and a site fee is charged, NMR (Non-Member Registration) applies.
